Basic Idea

https://www.tobennawes.com/art

This is ideally what I want my website to look like at the start, perhaps with a different color pallet and layout, but this basic idea

TAG Comics

https://tagcomics.com

This is a group of African Artists who came together to start this comic book website that started out on instagram but gained a lot of popularity and has now grown to be this huge website where you have to pay to sign up to view them.

The Boat

http://www.sbs.com.au/theboat/

I really love this style of comic/graphic novel, and would like to integrate as opposed to the traditional comic style this with the tag comic website idea on my own website.
